

A modern living room interior. The focal point is a large, textured wall mural featuring a Buddha face and intricate mandala patterns. In front of the mural is a dark blue sofa with several colorful cushions (teal, yellow, and patterned). To the left of the sofa is a bright yellow armchair. A low, dark coffee table with a light-colored top holds a bowl of fruit. A large, shaggy rug covers the floor. In the background, a kitchen area is visible through an open doorway. A large potted plant stands to the right of the sofa, and a small Buddha statue is placed on a table next to it.
